GRAFT CHARGE AIRED IN COURT

South Carolina Dispensary Scandal Comes Up in Shape of Federal Appeal.

GLASS CONTRACT INVOLVED

Winding-Up Commission Alleges That State Was Bled by High Rate for Bottles.

The rags of an old South Carolina dispensary scandal, involving the alleged grafting from the State of $50,000, were shaken out afresh yesterday in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, when attorneys presented argument in the case of the Carolina Glass Company against W. J. Murray, John McSween, A. N. Wood, Avery Patton and J. S. Brice, who comprised the Dispension of Cheraw, S. C., and B. L. Abney, of Columbia, S. C., appeared for the commission. which the commission a claim of $23,013.75, which the commission refused on the grounds that the company should make restitution of twice that amount to the State for overcharge for bottles furnished the dispensary.

The case was been sary Commission. The glass manufac-nished the dispensary.

The case was brought up from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of South Carolina, in which the Carolina Glass Company in stituted proceedings against the State Dispensary Commission on December Dispensary Commission on Decembe fore Judge Smith, who dismissed the suit and upheld the commission on June 14, 1912. The appeal was taken on the grounds that in investigating the conduct of the dispensary in years preceding its own creation by the Leg-islature, the State Dispensary Commission overstepped its powers.

awarded this company amounted to $613,437. Prior to 1906, the commission alleges, the contract was awarded to the Carolina Glass Company at practice of the tically any figures the company chose to name, but, beginning in 1996 and continuing as long in 1997 as the dis-pensary was operated, the Carolina Glass Company was forced to mate-rially lower its bids and come into open competiton with other concerns.

1906 agreed to abolish the existing sys-tem of conducting a single State dis-pensary, and allow each county to opcrate its own dispensary. Accordingly, of the liquor business, settle all out-standing claims against the dispensary and close its books. On this commis-sion were appointed J. W. Murray.

Motorma Released on Bond. John McSween, A. N. Wood, Avery Pat-ton and J. S. Brice. In 1906 and the first part of 1907 the Carolina Glass Company filled contracts with the State Dispensary amounting to $93,108, on which a balance of $23,013.75 was still due when the Disensary Commission began its duties. The glass company presented its claim to the commission, and on November 17, 1909, the commission filed its answer, admitting the justice of the claim, but declaring that the Carolina Glass Company was indebted to the State of South Carolina for $51,432,99 for overcharge in contracts preceding Sald State Was Overcharged.

The commission said: "The commission finds that the bids of the Carolina Glass Company that year (1906) and the short period of 190, were substantially in accord with the fair and reasonable market price of the goods sold during that period, but the commission finds that during e in excess of the fair and reason— The funeral will take place this af-market price for the goods sold ternoon at 5 o'clock from the home was $51,432.99, which should be, and is of the grandfather.

WANTED

Information as to owners of Portraits painted by early American artists, whether for sale or not; confidential.

Address, giving particulars, to "CATALOGUER," Care of The Times-Dispatch.

Dispensary, the commission trans-gressed its authority in rehearsing the business of former years. The com-pany was represented by J. S. Lyles and D. W. Robinson, of Columbia, S. C., and equitable footing. I do not see left arm was frightfully mangled, and the face and head were badly cut and brulsed. After directing that the Eion overstepped its powers.

Held Long Term Contract.

In a period extending over a dozen years, the Carolina Glass Company, of Columbia, S. C., supplied the State Dispensary with glass bottles, demijohns and liquid containers on contract. In the course of that time the contracts then be taken until Monday morning and this company, amounted to trated with grief. "She was their last night. He was so deeply moved of the proposed celebration. The South Carolina Legislature of that he could barely speak. The little divided her time between her home and Captain a committee and that of her grandfather, and it was instructions crate its own dispensary. Accordingly, on February 16, 1997, an act was passed appointing a State Dispensary Commission, with power to wind up the affairs. When she left the store yesterday to

Motorman Released on Bond. The accident happened in Robinson Street between Main and Floyd Ave-The car, No. 170, of the Broad and Twenty-fifth Street line, had just turned from Main into Robinson, and was going north. It had gove little Patrolmen Clarkson and W. A. Moore, on the scene, at once arrested Staton, courage a strictly Southern celebration who was overcome. He was taken to of progress in fifty years, but all are the Second Police Station, and admitted opposed to any proposition which will to ball in the sum of $500 by Judge D. Invite veterans of the Northern armies sets forth concisely the position of the Retail Merchants' Association: to ball in the sum of $500 by Judge D. C. Richardson, of the Hustings Court. Bond was furnished by Frank W. Mul-ford, general claim agent of the comhis appearance Monday

"A Dollar Saved is a Dollar Earned"

SOUND PROTEST AGAINST MEETING AT GETTYSBURG

Southern veterans with the Grand Army of the Republic, in the semi-centennial celebration of the Battle of Gettysburg on July 1-4, first became known last night in Lee Camp in the course of a debate on the proposed peace celebration here in 1915, when warm words were exchanged between General J. Thompson Brown, St. George T. C. Bryan and Dr. Landon R. Mason. The argument was precipitated by hereby, offset against the claim in favor of the said Carolina Glass Company, to-wit: its claim for $23,013.75, which, being deducted from the amount of said overcharges, the commission finds said Carolina Glass Company to be indebted to the State of South Carolina in the sum of $28,419.24."

In presenting the case yesterday attorneys for the glass company argued that, having been appointed in 1907 only to wind up the affairs of the State Dispensary, the commission transfore, we cannot meet them yet on fair and equitable footing. I do not see and equitable footing. I do not see how any man who came back in April of 1865 to smoking ruins and desolated fields, who fought for existence through six bitter years of reconstruc-tion and remembers the wormwood of those days, can celebrate side by side important battle of the war."

Before General J. Thompson Brown. who represents Virginia on the Gettys-burg commission, could reply, Dr. Mason added fuel to the flames.

That there is one faction of the Dr. Mason, "and I honstly desire the inited Confederate Veterans which peace of all the world, but it appears to me that such attempts at fraternizing with our friends, the enemy, can never accomplish what they are Such meetings cannot in reality heal the deep, ugly wound of the war. In my mind, they only effect a superficial healing of the sore, leaving beneath the surface the smarting, irritating pus. I, for one, cannot go to Gettysburg where the Grand Army will celebrate with fes-tival the battle which broke the backbone of the Confederacy while we recall it only with tears of deep sor-

The reply of General Brown to these us to be the most efficient and determined soldiers of ancient or modern shovel, and do not undermine our commander, Robert E. Lee, on the field of Gettysburg next July. Where General Lee is, I am not afraid to go.

this speech, it appeared that the ma-jority of those present favored the Gettysburg joint encampment. At its last meeting, Lee Camp appointed D. A. Brown, Jr., a committee to urge the City Council to appropriate $2,000 for traveling expenses of veterans, living 1913: in Richmond, who are unable to af-

Veterans here in 1915. Each organization appointed a committee to meet with committees from other municipal organizations on the night of May 19, in the Jefferson Hotel, for further discussion of the name, scope and purpose of the proposed celebration.

In introducing his sharp resolutions rescinding the indorsement of the cance jubilee, Judge Christian said that he intended no criticism of Lee Camp and the originators of the movement, but merely desired to relieve Lee Camp from an embarrassing situation in which it had been placed when she left the store yesterday to go home, little heed was paid, and not until her one shriek was heard the city on the night of May 19, in the was there any suspicion of danger.

"A committee of three to be appointed to confer with other organizations of the city on the night of May 19, in the Jefferson Hotel, concerning plans for a Southern celebration in Richmond in mittee, with instructions to withdraw Twenty-fifth Street line, had just of from Main into Robinson, and going north. It had gove little than 103 feet when the girl of its path.

to Richmond. Led by Judge George L. Christian, many members of Lee Camp spoke against any industrial celebration in 1915, but the majority voted to pany. for his appearance Monday morning at the inquest.

Allce was the youngest child of Mr. Allce was the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Poh. She had a younger sister, Estelle, three years old, and a baby brother, Lawrence, Mr. Poh is connected with the Virginia and West Virginia Demurrage Bureau.

The funeral will take place this afterward of the former action of the Retail Mer- action of the Retail Mer- action of the Retail Mer- action of the majority voted to send a committee to consult with other organizations.

Dear Sir,—As requested by you, I include here solutions adopted by the Retail Merchants' association April 24.

Bear Sir,—As requested by you, I include here solutions adopted by the Retail Merchants' association April 24.

It seems that some little feeling and criticism has been aroused by reason of this proposed movement, and while the funeral will take place this afterward from Post E. Clarke, Jr. secretary of the Retail Merchants' and the past several years, and the then read his annual report, in close herewith a copy of the resolutions adopted by the Retail Merchants' its great to be an American city ities great to be an American city its great to be association intends by the movement it has launched. The camp listened at-tentively while Mr. Clarke attempted to brush away the false imprecisions which have clouded the original expo-itself unalterably opposed to any celebration of the surrender at Appomattox.

While presenting most feelingly the erroneous ideas of the proposed exposition which have gained general circulation, the two camps refrained from condemning offnand the proposal for a commercial and industrial celebration in connection with the dedication of the Confederate Memorial Institute by the Grand Camp of United Confederate Veterans here in 1915. Each organization appointed a committee to meet with committees from other municipal organizations on the night of May 19.

that he could barely speak. The little victim was a neighborhood pet. She divided her time between her home.

of the proposed celebration.

Send Committees to Confer.

J. Taylor Elliston, D. A. Brown, Jr., and Captain John Lamb were sent as divided her time between her home. and that of her grandfather, and it was no unusual sight to see her running back and forth across the street.

When she left the store yesterday to "A committee of three to be appointed."

A committee from Lee Camp. with no carried by a rising vote of 58 to 0.

With the single exception of D. A.

Brown, Jr., who defended the Retail

Werchants' Association's action from the charge of being an attempt to celebrate the overthrow of the South-ern cause, discussion of Judge Christian's resolution was all for its passage. Mr. Brown himself favored the adoption of the resolution, but urged the assistance of the camp in organ-izing a strictly Southern celebration in connection with the dedication of Methe Grand Army of the Republic to participate in the celebration is even discussed: C. T. Loehr, W. F. Hopkins and R. N. Northen.

From the tone of the discussions in the camps it was evident that some members are willing to support and encourage a strictly Southern celebration of the "peace jubilee" idea was cut short after two hours of heated debate, when Commandant T. C. Jones abruptly put the resolutions to vote.

Letter From Merchants.

Preceding the debate on Judge Christian's resolutions Adjutant Strat.

Lynchburg was entertaining men who do things, and he wanted to see the visitors enjoy themselves. He said Lynchburg was but a small community of men who have gone to the front and made themselves felt in important things, and who have builded a good citizenship. Dr. Paxton was very happy in his welcome. He said Mr. King had told the convention the local post for their cordial and hearty welsome.

adopting these resolutions to take any action that would be offensive to the Confederate veterans. The idea was to have some big event or celebration here in 1915, at the dedication of the Battle Abbey and to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the close of the war. The use of the term peace jubilee may have been inappropriate, but that was not the full and final name of the celebration.

The idea of our association was to call a meeting of representatives from various and sundry organizations and decide whether such a celebration was expedient, and for those united organizations to take charge of the move-izations to take charge of the move-izations to take charge of the moveexpedient, and for those united organizations to take charge of the movement, and they could adopt such name and character of celebration as in their judgment was best suited. At the meeting last night a committee was appointed to appear before your camp tonight (if your rules would allow us) to explain what was cone and ask that action be deferred until another meet-The reply of General Brown to these two speakers was brief:

"We are not gobig to Gettysburg to unite with an enemy which will rejoice in our mortification. We will also ask that your camp appoint a committee there the men of an army whose leader, 'Fighting Joe' Hooker, declared Jefferson Hotel, to hear from the varius to be the most efficient and determine the presentation of the pr ous organizations that were represented last night as to whether or not it is desirable to hold some big celebration in Richmond in 1915 and of what kind or character.

It was certainly not our intentic desire to offend in any way the Confed-orate veterans, and I trust that the committee will be able to make it plain to the camp to-night.

Very truly yours, W. A. CLARKE, JR.,

Lee Camp Resolutions. Judge Christian's resolutions read: Whereas, the records of this camp show the following action on April 25, Lynchburg, Va., May 9.—The annual tain it.

T. P. A. convened this morning at the

The address of welcome on the part of the city was made by William King, Jr., president of the Board of Aldermen, and by Dr. James Dunlop Pax-ton, pastor of First Presbyterian

Mr. King told the convention that Lynchburg was entertaining men who you will better understand the welwas made sergeant-at-arms.

Safety

It should be a source of comfort to you to know that the water you drink is SAFE. Every precaution for sanitary handling is taken at our spring and bottling house that

Broad Rock Water may reach YOU Wonderfully Pure movement inaugurated by the Retail Merchants' Association as since published;

And, whereas, this camp not only does not indorse the movement of the Retail Merchants' Association, above referred to, if its intention and meaning, as published, is to hold a so-called "Peace Jubilee" to celebrate and commemorate the surrender of the Confederate armies and the consequent downfall of the Confederacy, and to referred to, if its intention and meaning, as published, is to hold a so-called "Peace Jubilee" to celebrate and commemorate the surrender of the Confederate armies and the consequent downfall of the Confederacy, and to invite the Grand Army of the Meaning invite the Grand Army of the Repub-lic to unite in such celebration and re-joicing; but, on the contrary, the camp ans, living ible to afgray and the camp indorse the action of the Retail Merchants' Association to have a grand jublice in this city in 1915, and that the camp notify the Retail Merchants' Association of their hearty co-operation';

And, whereas, it has been published to the world that the movement indorsed, as above, by the Retail Merchants' Association, above referred to, and indorsed, as above, by the camp, contember of history as racy. Such appears of the fiftleth anniversary of the surrender of the Confederate armies, and the consequent downfall of the Confederate cause, in which is deerate vetting vetting the Grand Army of the Republic is to be invited to join;

And, whereas, at the time of the sorted the action of the camp notify the Retail Merchants' Association, above referred to, and indorsed, be, and the same is hereby, indorsed, and that this camp desires to place on record the statement that it will neither countenance or aid any movement which has for its object any indication of rejoicing at the surrender of the Confederate armies, and the consequent downfall of the Confederate cause, in which celebration to have a grand jubliee in this city in this city at the time and for the purposes above indicated:

Therefore, be it now resolved, First that the action of the scope and meaning of the scope and meaning of the scope and meaning of the surposes above indicated:

Therefore, be it now resolved, First the time and for the purposes above indicated:

Therefore, be it now resolved, First the the purposes above indicated:

Therefore, be it now resolved, First the the purposes above indicated:

Therefore, be it now resolved, First that the action of the camp of April 25, 1913, having been taken in this city at the time and for the purposes above indicated:

Therefore, be it now resolved, First the the purposes above indicated:

Therefore, be it now resolved, First the the action of the camp of April 25, 1913, having been taken in the camp of April 25, 1913, having been taken in the camp of April 25, 191

ewellyn. Committee on Rules—B. B. Adams, H. Stanley, J. M. Andrews, W. L.

lic to unite in such celebration and reploiding; but, on the contrary, the camp personal policing; but, on the contrary, the camp in plocing; but, on the contrary, the camp in the purposes above indicated; bration in this city at the time and for the purposes above indicated; Therefore, be it now resolved.

First. That the action of the camp of April 25, 1913, having been taken under a misapprehension of the scope and meaning of the movement thereby indorsed, be, and the same is hereby, rescinded, and that this camp desires to place on record the statement that it will neither countenance or aid any movement which has for its object any indication of rejoicing at the surrences, and the consequent downfall of the Confederate armies and the consequent downfall of the Confederate cause, the righteousness of which cause the members of this camp believe in as firmly now as when they enlisted in its defense in 1861.

Second. That the foregoing preamble and resolution be published, so that the true sentiments of this camp may be no longer misrepresented or missing the secretary to send a telegram of sympathy to Colonel John S. Harwood, of Richmond, who is ill, and also send him a bouquet of flowers.

Delegates Elected.

This afternoon the unders, J. M. Andrews, W. L. Barrow.

Committee on Ruelse-B. B. Adams, J. H. Committees on Resolutions—J. A. Davidson. A. T. McMurry, S. H. Ellerson. J. A. Davidson. A. T. McMurry, S. H. Ellerson. J. W. May.

Committee on Resolutions—J. A. Davidson. A. T. McMurry, S. H. Ellerson. J. A. Davidson. A. T. McMurry, S. H. Ellerson. J. Williams, F. S. Hancock, C. W. Saunders, J. O. Boatwright, D. W. Sale.

Auditing Committee—J. J. Allen, Williams, F. S. Hancock, C. W. Saunders, J. O. Boatwright, D. W. Sale.

Auditing Committee—J. J. Allen, Williams, F. S. Hancock, C. W. Saunders, J. O. Boatwright, D. W. Sale.

Auditing Committee—J. J. Allen, Williams, F. S. Hancock, C. W. Saunders, J. O. Boatwright, D. W. Sale.

Auditing Committee—J. J. Allen, Williams, F. S. Hancock, C. W. Saunders, J. O.

DIVENTION

Lynchburg had built a hotel to entertain it.

Lynchburg had built a hotel to entertain it.

"You know," he said, "that we quit the Virginia League last year."

The delegates caught the point, and there was prolonged applause.

"We wanted," continued Dr. Paxton, "to get with cities in our class, such as New York and Baltimore, and we extend you an invitation to go out and asse us open with the latter city tomorrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseball, I'll take you out to morrow. If, however, any of you do not like baseba cention of the Virginia Division,

A convened this morning at the Auditorium with between 250
300 delegates and visitors presThe opening prayer was offered Rev. J. Cleveland Hall, D. D., of aville, J. A. Hawkins, of Danville, as made sergeant-at-arms.

"You know," he said, "that we quit the Virginia League last year."

The delegates caught the point, and there was prolonged applause.

"We wanted," continued Dr. Paxton, "to get with cities in our class, such as New York and Baltimore, and we extend you an invitation to go out and see us open with the latter city to-

Many of the delegates were minus official

Many of the delegates were minus official badges and convention canes after the visit.

Entertained at Reception.

To-night the convention was entertained at an informal reception and dance at the Virginian Hotel. The event was purely informal, but was attended by a large number of townspeople as well as visitors.

Norfolk appears to be in the lead for the 1914 convention, and the indications are that Mr. Jones, of Danville, will be the next president, the fight being between Jones and R. D. Daivis, of Norfolk.

SHOT THROUGH HEAD

Angered, it was sai Clarke, Jr., secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, got upon his feet to give an explanation of just what his at liberty to say that certainly it was

Then the doctor talked about the weather, and told the convention

Then the doctor talked about the weather, and told the convention

To stored, Jr., secretary of the Retail Merizations in explanation, I feel that I am to give an explanation of just what his at liberty to say that certainly it was

Then the doctor talked about the weather, and told the convention

Then the doctor talked about the weather, and told the convention

To many the post say they must have 100 members of the members of th

No More White Postals.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, May 9.—The old familiar white postal cards are togo, and in their place a card of green is to appear. Postmaster-General Burleson has signed an order making this change of color in all cards of 1-cent denomination, to distinguish them from the higher-priced ones. This change conforms with the practice of foreign countries.

THE WEATHER

Accumulated excess in temperature since January 1 Deficiency in rainfall since March Local Observation S P. M. Yesterday.
Temperature . 71
Humidity . 54
Wind—direction N. E.
Wind—velocity . 3
Weather . Baining

Weather Raining

CONDITIONS IN IMPORTANT CITIES.

(At 8 P. M. Eastern Standard Time.)

Place. Ther. H. T. L. T. Weather.
Asheville 66 74 48 Clear Atlanta 72 80 60 Cloudy
Atlantic City 60 72 58 Cloudy
Buffalo 40 50 40 Clear
Calgary 12 44 32 Cloudy
Chicago 40 44 40 Clear
Calgary 12 44 32 Cloudy
Chicago 40 44 40 Clear
Charleston 70 76 66 P. cloudy
Chicago 40 44 40 Clear
Galveston 72 76 68 Clear
Galveston 72 76 68 Clear
Galveston 72 76 68 Clear
Hatteras 68 74 66 P. cloudy
Kansas City 62 72 58 Cloudy
Kansas City 62 72 58 Cloudy
Kansas City 62 72 58 Cloudy
Kontyolie 64 78 58 P. cloudy
Kansas City 62 72 58 Cloudy
Kontyolie 64 78 58 P. cloudy
Now Orleans 74 82 68 Cloudy
Now Orleans 74 82 68 Cloudy
Now Orleans 76 80 60 Clear
Pittsburgh 50 60 54 Clear
Pittsburgh 50 60 54 Clear
Raleigh 70 82 54 P. cloudy
St. Louis 58 72 58 P. cloudy
St. Louis 58 72 58 P. cloudy
St. Paul 54 56 38 Clear
San Francisco 60 64 54 Clear

MINIATURE ALMANAC. May 10, 1913, HIGH TIDE:

Wonderful Values in Smart Summer Suits Suits Worth to $15 Suits Worth to $20 Suits Worth to $25 Extraordinary values are these smart, shapely, styl-At the exceedingly low price of $9.75 we offer styles The highest class gar-ments that were ever offer-ed in Richmond at this price. The fabrics these smart, shapely, stylish Summer Suits, made of high-class Summer Fabrics of every desirable kind which we offer at the special price of the consideration of every are the best and the ship and fit ship and fit money can This Will Interest You-Weisberger's clothes for men are not stacked up in dusty, creased piles on open tables, but are conveniently displayed on hangers in special sanitary, dustproof wardrobe cases. This is just one of the many interesting and important features that will appeal to men of particular and discriminating taste. - Weisberger's --- Broad Street --- Richmond

Quality and Value For His Money

--will do well to pay a little visit of inspection to the big, new store to-day planning of the sections that are reserved for his particular requirements.

As you enter the store and turn to the left, you will see conveniently near to the entrance a large modern department devoted to Men's Furnishings, specializing only in goods of proven merit, and at lowest prices. Then let the elevator whisk you up in a jiffy to the second floor, where you will find just the Summer Suit you want-cool, stylish, comfortable, serviceable and priced lower than you could buy one of similar quality elsewhere. If you are not ready to buy, come anyway and look us over. You won't be annoyed or importuned to make any purchases and the knowledge you thus gain of our ability to serve you to your best advantage and to save you money will prove of value to you whenever you invest in outer apparel or dress accessories

Saturday, and see for himself just what thought and care have gone into the

HILL CITY WELCOMES

T. P. A. CONVENTION

Women who want new, fashionable, was glad to see it, but "just double what Mr. King has said, and the convention the city was glad to see it, but "just double what Mr. King has said, and extended the courtesies are said and the courtesies are said the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the delegates the courtesies are said the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the delegates the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the delegates the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the delegates the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the delegates the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the delegates the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the delegates the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the delegates the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the delegates the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordial and hearty well-come, assuring them that the city of Lynchburg and the local post for their cordinal and hearty well-come.

Summer Hats, either trimmed or untrimmed, AT ABOUT HALF PRICE, should not fail to inspect the many wonderful values now available.

Do your Saturday shopping at the new, big store, where you get the utmost return for your money, and you will find dozens of opportunities to save many dollars on goods of highest quality and absolute dependa-The Man Who Wants the Maximum of Style, of any description. Ask especially to see the